How far must you travel to reach Marian each day? Some of us come on the by-pass from Bristol, Elkhart, and Goshen. Those living in Granger must fight the lines of traffic to get to school. Despite the frequent blizzards, even the Michiganders manage to journey from Niles and Cassopolis. Living in South Bend or Mishawaka can mean either a long or short adventure to school. Some of us live so close that we can hear the tardy bell ring before we hit the parking lot while others must leave home before some of us even get up. No matter from what place we travel, we all have one thing in common--Marian High School. Everyday we journey from our homes to unite and form our student body, faculty, and staff. Geography does not get in the way of our student life, academics, sports or clubs. Instead our diverse locations have become a part of our uniqueness. Together we are going places.

Homecoming

The mood during the first half of the homecoming game against Washington was dreary. The crowd seemed to expect Washington to win since they already had the lead. Yet when half-time arrived and the homecoming court was presented, the cloud began to lift. It had disappeared completely once the homecoming king and queen were announced. This year Pat McNeil and Amy Kolokovich were crowned.

The presentation of the crowns only completed the event-filled homecoming week. Students displayed their school spirit throughout the week by dressing to the themes of college day, tropical day, class color day, and spirit day. The enthusiasm increased during the pep rally, despite the fact that the faculty beat the seniors in the tug-of-war class competition.

When the Knights returned to the field for the second half, they were energized and ready for the Washington Panthers. The team worked quickly to tie the score at 21-21. After a forty minute delay due to the injury of kicker Matt Bussman, and with only two seconds left in the game, freshman D.J. Fitzpatrick kicked for the winning field goal. The Knights were victorious! What a way to end homecoming!

A Happenin' Place

Hear that cheer rise up from the crowd in the Marian gym, getting pumped for a night of cheering! Not only did this year's pep rallies prepare the students for the game, but they honored each of the sports teams individually. Organized by the pep club, each pep rally included presentation of the spirit court and homecoming court, class competitions, and the class games. Freshman Mary Ostriker was a good sport as the victim of dizzy basketball, while the teachers overcame the seniors in tug-of-war. Despite the upset of the seniors, the pep rallies put a finishing touch on the game day.

Moondance

The Century Center in downtown South Bend proved to be a perfect place to hold the winter semi-formal. The girls' tennis team sponsored the event and gave it the name "Moondance." This theme fit perfectly because the evening riverside view was heavenly and the students who attended dressed in dazzling attire. The pulse-pounding music and subtle decorations highlighted a glorious night of dancing and laughter. "Moondance" took Marian to a wonderful place amongst the stars.

Helping Hands

Marian has acquired quite a reputation around the community as a generous, spirited group of teenagers who are willing to go the extra mile in order to help those in need. The student council sponsored Food Drive was a great success with food and money raised for many grateful families. The Jr. Civitan sponsored a Gift Lift which received an overwhelming response. Gifts poured in, and many children around South Bend had a wonderful Christmas thanks to Marian's generosity. The Knight's top-rate hockey team participated in Toy for Tots, again showing the wonderful spirit that defines Marian. Hopefully Marian's reputation will continue to grow as the spirit of giving spreads throughout the student body.

Spirit Week

The school spirit of Marian students was evident throughout Spirit Week, during which students showed off their creativity. Themes for the week were tropical day, sports day, class color day, and spirit day. The week also featured a multicultural mass, during which Felipe Contreras and Karen Stanley read the scripture in Spanish. The week brought about a break in tradition with the freshmen winning the spirit stick over the seniors. The freshmen displayed overwhelming enthusiasm with their theme "Fun in the Sun with 2001" and their bright hallway decorations. All classes showed great spirit at the basketball game on Thursday night when they came to cheer on the Knights. Spirit Week was a success, but with all the pride and enthusiasm Marian students have in their school, every week is a spirit week.

Finding Ourselves

Students in high school often feel overwhelmed with homework, sports, and extracurriculars. Thankfully, just when students feel that they are at the end of their ropes, the time for student retreats arrives. Students are able to relax and learn techniques to manage pressure while getting to know their classmates and themselves better. Freshmen and sophomores went to St. Mary's Angela Gymnasium, where the National Evangelization Team introduced the theme "Who Are You?" Students played games, watched skits, and had group discussions where they learned many valuable lessons. The junior class went to Michiana Christian Service Camp in Niles, Michigan, for an overnight retreat. The weather was beautiful, and the mood was enthusiastic. Throughout the day and far into the night, juniors expanded their circles of friends as they got to know their classmates. As everyone looked to see the good qualities in others, they also looked to find the good qualities within themselves.

These sophomores will testify that Mr. Brettnacher runs a tight ship.

Noises Off Stage

What do sixty props, a rotating set, forty crew members, eight stage doors, and ten actors equal? For all involved in Marian Drama's fall production of Noises Off, they were the deciding factors contributing to a huge success.

Every part, either on or off stage, was an enormous one. Each actor had a large role entering in and out of those eight doors in a matter of seconds. As the only senior member of the cast, Beth Cunningham certainly made a lasting impression on her audience "revealing" the most fascinating qualities of her character. Likewise, the stage crew had their hands full, tirelessly rotating the cumbersome set and ensuring that all sixty props were in place. After the final curtain went up, Director Mrs. Bennett and the entire ensemble could not be more pleased with the outcome.

Right: Has the cast gone insane? Maybe they are looking for their lost marbles.

Before We Say Goodbye...

This year, since the seniors had to attend all 180 days of school, some new activities were planned to make this extra time enjoyable. Every senior participated in two days of service, which included painting a senior citizen's house, working on a Habitat house, repainting Marian's gym, cleaning up Hannah's House, and taking preschoolers to the zoo. On Thursday of the Senior Activities week, the traditional Senior Appreciation Day was held. After the Senior Mass, celebrated by Father Shoemaker, the seniors were served breakfast by parents. Then the class enjoyed the senior video and skits performed by the underclass officers. The Sophomores had the class laughing with their "Pom" routine in which Toby Butler did the splits. The week ended with a Senior class picnic at Potato Creek State Park. Outside in the beautiful, sunny weather, the Seniors enjoyed grilled hamburgers and hot dogs. A few members of the class even tried to start a little water war. As a whole, the Senior Activities week was deemed a success.

"Places Everyone. Places!"

The 1997-1998 school year ended with a bang when Marian Drama performed the musical Fame, under the direction of Mrs. Bennett. As teenagers trying to make it big in New York's High School of the Performing Arts, each character goes through many changes in his or her four-year journey. In his first performance in a Marian production, Otis Wigfall stole the show as the rappin' dancer, "Tyrone", in love with fellow classmate "Iris" played by senior Beth Cunningham. Sadjah Catlett, "Carmen", enlivened the show when singing the title song, "Fame". Toby Butler as Nick, Lauren Coglianese as "Miss Sherman", and, newcomer, Katie Behr as "Serena", gave other exceptional performances.

Behind the scenes, the show was in good hands as Paul Pulkowski and Josh Berzai worked diligently as light and sound coordinators. Jenny Martell made sure that all the props were in their "prop"er places while Brian Gallo and Daena Sisk assisted Mrs. Bennett as Student Directors.

Overall, it was another success by Marian's Drama Department.

Celebrate We Will

The theme for the 1998 Junior-Senior Prom was Celebrate We Will taken from the Dave Matthews Band song, Two Step, and prom-goers took the theme to heart, partying and celebrating well into the night; first at Union Station, where the prom was held, then at Chippewa Bowl for an entertaining After-Prom. The decorations at Union Station were stunning, while the games, karaoke, and bowling at Chippewa were a blast. Those attending the prom were treated to not one couple as Prom King and Queen, but two! Lara Gammon and Nathan Vogel as well as Beth Cunningham and Otis Wigfall were crowned. With good music and high spirits, the dance floor became crowded early and enthusiastic dancers partied until the final song. Special thanks goes out to the prom committee for their hard work and wonderful decorations. The theme turned out to be perfect, for those at the prom seemed determined to celebrate and have a fantastic time.

We Made It!!!

Commencement for the Class of 1998 took place on Sunday, June 7, at 2:00 PM with sunny weather perfect for the outdoor ceremony. The graduates and their families enjoyed the three speeches given by the co-salutatorians Laura Bonadies and Jill Boruff, and the valedictorian Beth Cunningham. Commencement speaker Mr. Dan Fitzpatrick of Quality Dining told the Class of 1998 to think about the adventures life has in store for them. After the speeches came the moment everyone had been waiting for--the presentation of the diplomas. Next came the turning of the tassles and some graduates even celebrated by tossing their caps into the air. Regardless, the graduates were happy for the arrival of this moment. Congratulations Class of 1998.

As the world surges forward into an era of computers and electronics, Marian High School began its technological improvement with bold steps. This year, the school gained new technology that helped the school better the education process, cater to the students and assist the faculty in their duties. Many different components were brought together for the technological enhancement of Marian. Mr. Lancaster was hired to coordinate Marian's progress along the technology continuum.

The main element of the improvement was the placement of a new computer in every room. Each teacher received either a desktop or a laptop computer for his or her use in the classroom. This one action allowed for many other advances within the school. The intranet, also known as the internal internet, was established to connect all of the classrooms and offices and permit the use of electronic mail to report grades, progress reports, and memos. Each classroom also gained access to the World Wide Web or Internet.

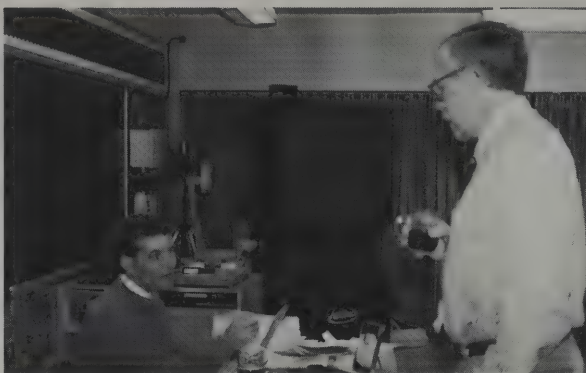

Many improvements benefited the students as well. The most noticeable change was the addition of the Channel One Network. A television was installed in each classroom for the viewing of this ten minute program. This news channel designed especially for middle and high school students provided information dealing with world wide issues. Each topic brought new light to the different events going on around the country, and at the end of every broadcast, a brief pop quiz lightened the mood from the day's features.

Vision Athena provided a new distance learning component which allowed groups to meet though miles separated them. With a big screen television and several video cameras, teachers held inservices, and field trips were taken without even having to leave the school. This distance learning capability gives students the opportunity to take classes offered at other schools.

The final step in this year's improvement plan dealt with the safety of the students, faculty and their belongings. A "high tech" security system was installed in the school in order to prevent break-ins and unwanted trespassers. The system includes four video cameras and monitors, key pads, and a pass card to unlock the doors. The key pad and pass card check are located at every door of the building to allow teachers to enter the school before and after school. This system insures the happiness and protection of the students, faculty, and staff.

All of these new technological advances have altered the school year. Rather than hearing about teachers putting grade checks on the back of attendance sheets we hear of "e-mailing" them. These changes have increased teacher efficiency and opened new windows for students. Changes are expected for the future as well. A multimedia computer lab, additional equipment to supplement the teachers' computers, and barcoding in the library are all improvements that can be expected in the near future at Marian. Marian High School will be prepared for the 21st century.

Journey To The Center Of The Mind

The Science Department has been making great strides this year. Some students listened to a chemistry lecture via satellite while others "attended" a genetics conference this fall. While these new events were interesting, old standbys such as the Bio II swamp stomp and dunes trip were favorites. It just goes to show that science is more than dissection and plants. The Science Department will continue to go new places as the construction of the new labs is finished.

Go Figure

Marian's Math Department is taking students to new worlds -- those of Algebra, Trig, Geometry, and Calculus. And while many students are praying that they will NEVER have to take such a trip again, the skills that they learn can be very helpful in real life. Without math, how could you tell the sale price of a shirt and if you'll have enough money left over to buy a new CD? Or how much each of your friends has to chip in to pay for a tank of gas for your annual road trip to Florida? Now those are the important math applications.

Speaking of...

Communication is the key to the future. As cultures intermingle, people will need a way to communicate. Marian offers a vast Foreign Language Department. Spanish, French, Latin, and German are key languages in the world that are offered by Marian. Mrs. Borton and Mr. Jochum add to the Spanish and Latin departments. Foreign language helps Marian in keeping up with the traditional way of communication as we travel to different places.

Bringing Grace to This Place

One characteristic that makes Marian High School unique is its Theology Department. Marian's Catholic environment makes the school a more peaceful and caring institute. As freshmen, students learn the basics of their faith in the class Faith and Doctrine. As they mature into seniors, students are able to make a difference in the community through Apostolic Works. The Theology Department enables students to learn, enhance, and practice their beliefs.

Touching People Around the World...

...from the classrooms of the English department. The Language Arts teachers have the task of teaching students how to communicate with others, to make their ideas known and to learn to accept the ideas of those around them. Through studying the language and the works of writers from around the world, students are able to improve their skills in communication. With this acquired ability, Marian English students will be capable of touching people around the world by effectively expressing their ideas in words.

Places of Creation

The students in Marian's art classes enter a place where, for an hour every day, they can produce creations of all shapes and sizes. They learn many techniques for drawing, sculpting, and painting which they practice and perfect throughout the year. Down the hallway, a different type of creation takes place, but students use calculators and numbers instead of paintbrushes and still life. They are the business students, and they leave their classes with a greater perspective about the art of creating successful business techniques. Creating beautiful music is another art form which Marian students enjoy. The art, music, and business classes prompt the students to use their imaginations and creative skills.

Someone's in the Kitchen With Henry & McShane . . .

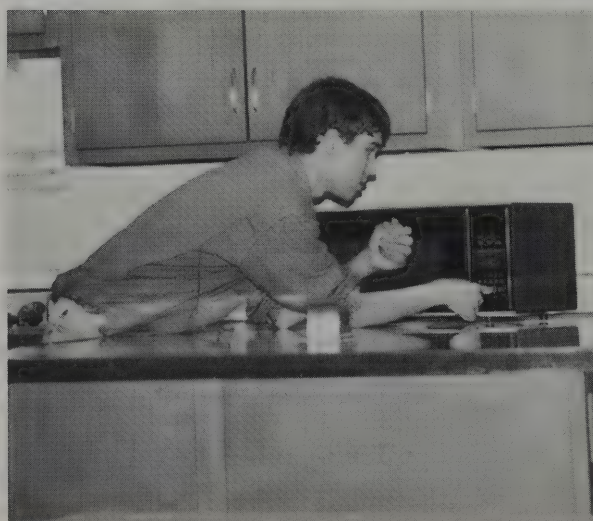

Being a well-rounded person is an important aspect of a thorough education. In the Home Economics department, students learn how to get along in life after graduation with classes like Foods and Independent Living. And for those of us that need a boost now and then, the Learning Strategies teachers show us new ways to expand our knowledge. Both departments are essential in a student's quest for knowledge.

Marian High School has always been committed to a tradition of excellence and self-improvement. The physical education department has helped to reach this vision by teaching students how to better their minds, and to strengthen their bodies. Physical education is an important aspect of being a well-rounded student. This year, two new teachers came on the scene to share their knowledge: Mr. Householter and Miss Blake. Together with Mrs. Schulz, these teachers are preparing us to go new places and to reach new heights.

Teaching the Past for the Future

Humans learn their history so that they prevent themselves from making the same mistakes in the future. Our past has always offered us a wonderful lesson to learn. This is the lesson that the Marian Social Studies Department is teaching the students. The different courses offered this year were geography, United States history, world history, psychology, sociology, economics, and American government. Each course is designed to tell us about who we are and from where we came. Most importantly, the courses teach us about where we are going.

Computer use is on the rise and what better skills to have than keyboarding and word processing. Marian offered students a number of courses this year in the Computer Department. Besides word processing and keyboarding, classes available were computer programming and computer applications. All of these choices provided students with the opportunity to dig deeper into the realm of the personal computer. The department is an essential part of Marian and it will continue to be for many years to come.

National Honor Society

The members of Marian's National Honor Society pledge to uphold the qualities of scholarship, service, leadership, and character. All are active in sports, extra-curriculars, or clubs while they work to maintain a 3.33 grade point average. Members have the responsibility of choosing and participating in service projects around the community. As they work to be leaders in the school, NHS members demonstrate hard work, dedication, and respect in all they do in order to set an example for Marian High School. Numerous students were active members in the 1997-1998 school year, proving that Marian students continue to reach high for their goals.

New York: A Great Place for Service

Marian students always find ways to help out in the community but none more so than the students who went on the 1998 Service Trip to Lacona, New York in April. Sponsored by Mrs. Rafford, the trip took place over spring break. Leigh Ann Jeffers, Laura McLane, Linda Papay, Anne Cashore, and Kate Maich all went to St. Francis Farm in Lacona and helped with tasks such as laying pipes, burning leaves, cleaning, and planning and serving meals. The biggest job was tearing down a house which was ruined by water damage. The students worked hard and set an example for everyone in the community. Great work, girls!

Making Beautiful Music Together

The band and choir have been very busy this year. Besides performing at home basketball games they also participated in a Christmas concert. They even traveled to the U93 radiostation where their musical talent was heard across Mishawaka. The choir shared their gift of music by Christmas caroling at St. Paul's and for the nuns at St. Frances. This year another choir existed solely for masses that was under the direction Mark Lang. The band and choir have brought music to the city of Mishawaka.

He Went to Paris

Not many places are left for the French Club to visit. They have ventured to the Home Ec room for Mardi Gras and Christmas celebrations. Potowatomi Park was the setting for the annual Hospice Walk where members turned out in full force. In an effort to become more cultured, the students travelled to Chicago to see Les Miserables, Phantom of the Opera, and a Renoir exhibit. French Club's travellings teach its members about French language, culture, entertainment, and food.

The Spanish Club started off the year with a taco movie party. They also had a Christmas party. But the Spanish Club not only has fun but serves others. This year club members worked at the Hospice Walk with the other foreign language clubs and at La Casa de Amistad to help the Spanish children. They also participated in the Hospice walk. The Spanish Club also took a trip to the Don Quijote restaurant in Valparaiso, where they enjoyed authentic Spanish cuisine and flamenco and tango dancing.

Knights Put Order in Our Court

Most people celebrate Valentine's Day by dining with their significant other or by giving flowers and candy. For the 24 Marian student in Mock Trial, February 14th meant something totally different. The four teams spent their day at the 1998 Mock Trial Regional Competition debating the guilt and the innocence of Dr. Sam Mudd. Dr. Mudd allegedly aided the escape of President Lincoln's assassin, John Wilkes Booth. By the end of the day, two teams placed in the top eight and were therefore eligible to compete at the State Finals in Indianapolis. After 4 months of working on the case every day, the state teams finished 6th and 7th out of the 20 best teams in Indiana. Congratulations are in order for John Jessen and Kammye Madden (Regional Awards-Best Witness), Toby Butler (Regional Award-Best Attorney), and Mike Flynn (State Award-Best Attorney). Their success is partly attributed to the help of their coaches, Mr. J.D. "Great Pumpkin" Childs and Mr. Jim Fitzpatrick.

The Marian chapter of Jr. Civitan has accomplished more in one year than many clubs could accomplish in ten. Since September, members of Jr. Civitan have collected more than 199,000 pop can tabs from Marian students for the Ronald McDonald House charity; for the Christmas season's Gift Lift, the members collected more than 300 gifts for disabled children and adults in the community, for which they were rewarded the St. Joeseeph County Mental Health Association's Annual Angel Award; students rang bells to raise money for the Salvation Army; members sold Christmas ornaments for the Giving Tree at Scottsdale Mall; and the club sponsored Samaritan Saturday to help improve Marian's grounds and facilities. Believe it or not, the list goes on and on. Truly, Jr. Civitan represents the giving spirit and generosity that is present in the Marian community.

Going Places...

And Getting There Safely

Marian's chapter of Students Against Drunk Driving has steadily grown throughout the years as students have become more aware of the dangers of drunk driving. The members are very active in the school community urging students to make wise choices. SADD sponsors the Marian lock-in as well as Prom Promise, which attempts to avoid any tragedies from occurring on a very special night. Before joining the Marian SADD chapter, students must sign a SADD Promise pledging not to drink and drive. Their parents must also agree not to drink and drive. Students are once again showing their compassion for others, attempting to save lives by inspiring students to act safely and responsibly.

Spirit? We Got That!

A school is nothing without some school spirit. This year, the pep club insured that Marian was filled with spirit. They promoted school spirit in many different ways. The pep club is mainly known for the organization of pep rallies. Yet, there were many other ways that they promoted enthusiasm. The pep club was in charge of the birthday calendar in the cafeteria and the senior countdown calendar. They also supported the Knight athletics by providing treats for each team and helping report scores. Lead by president Tessa Wilhelm, the pep club added that spirit to the school throughout the year.

Our Voices Will Be Heard

When changes need to be made, Marian can count on the student council. This year, the student government made up of student council members, class representatives, and homeroom representatives, was the voice of our student body. Under the leadership of president Beth Cunningham, vice-president John Breen, and secretary/treasurer Joey Woodka, the student council made a difference. They organized the homecoming courts and ceremonies, brought food from outside restaurants into the cafeteria, and voiced the concerns of the students. The student council is our link as students to members of the faculty and the administration. The student council is a necessity here at Marian.

YOUTH CONFERENCE

STARS, which stands for Students Taking Action to Reduce Stress, is a group that works to promote student morale with activities such as selling doughnuts on Friday mornings. Not only does this group help the student body, but it lends a hand in the community. This year, STARS began a weekly visit to the homeless shelter where they work with many underprivileged children. STARS is also taking steps towards becoming a peer counseling group. The training of the STARS is coming from sources such as the Lang conference and Mrs. Coglianese. They plan to be prepared for next year's stressed out students.

A newspaper has always been considered the voice of the people. Here at Marian, the Lance was the voice of the students. Created by a staff of students and two faculty co-editors, the Lance has put the Marian news into its quarterly editions. Not only did the staff work extremely hard, but the editors, Manda Wishin, Brett Baker, and Stephanie King, put forth extra effort to make sure that the newspaper reached the student body. In addition to being an editor, Manda Wishin was voted the Most Valuable Staffer for 1998 because of her dedication to the newspaper. She, along with Kirsten Niles, were the Marian representatives to the Next Generation Page in the South Bend Tribune. This, in addition to the work of the staff, helped to improve and expand the Lance. The effort was well worth it. The Lance will continue to represent the student voice and bring news to the school.

The People Behind the Pictures

The yearbook you are holding in your hands is the product of a year of hard work and early morning meetings, hours of typing and proofreading, and hundreds of pictures and captions. The Madrigal staff, lead by editor Jill Boruff and advisor Mr. R.C. Ganser, devoted hours of their time to develop this year's theme, "Places," so that the 1997-98 yearbook would be one of Marian's greatest yet. If you see any room for improvement or have any suggestions on how we can make the yearbook even better, it's never too late to join the staff! We worked hard to create a yearbook that would include and be appreciated by each and every Marian student and we hope that we have accomplished that. Thank you for your special moments, your victories, and your great smiles because they made our job much easier!

Yearbook advisor Mr. R.C. Ganser thinks, "I really need some Advil" as he patiently deals with the problems that come with running a yearbook staff.

Across the Field

This year's football team ended its season with another winning record -- the third in a row. Many school records were broken and many awards were given out. During the season, the team was undefeated at home and had a total of four shutouts. In many games, the team came from behind to pull off a victory. Elected as team captains were seniors Neil Druhan, Mike Bortone, Travis Block, and Brian Glon. Noah Davey and Frank Perri were Offensive Players of the Year, Brian Glon was Defensive Player of the Year, and the Hammer Award went to Neil Druhan. Rich Brown was the Kicking Game Player of the Year. All in all, the 1997 football season was filled with special games, hard-won matches, and many memorable moments.

Go Speedracer, Go!

The Marian Knights once again held strong during the 1997-98 Cross Country season. The boys' team, led by captains Adam Hums and Nico Villanueva, ended the year with a record of 10 and 12. Notable team members included Senior Adam Hums as MVP, and Sophomores Cole Laux (Most Improved) and Andy Lattaner (Mental Attitude). This year, the team was mostly Freshmen and Sophomores; Coach Householter expects them to be strong contenders in the future as the runners gain more experience.

The Girls' Varsity Cross Country team also had a rebuilding year. Led by second-year captain Lesley Buysse, the Lady Knights finished at 9 and 13. Amy Fransted was voted MVP, Freshman Angie Klocke was Most Improved, and Mandy Brettbacher received the Mental Attitude award. Like the boys' team, the girls were young and are looking forward to the future. Watch for the teams next year as they burn up the grass, leaving their opponents in the dust.

Check These Guys Out!

Despite numerous injuries this year, the hockey team showed what they could do as a team. The team had a very successful season. This year, they surpassed the achievements of any previous team. With only one loss during the regular season, they rallied together to win the Fall Cup against St. Joe and became the city champions for the first time ever. "Winning the Fall Cup was the most inspiring event," says team member Corey Horner. The talent pervades the team. Senior leadership was apparent with Nathan Vogel as the top scorer. The new freshmen, despite the difficulties of being on an older team, stepped up to the challenge and helped lead the team to victory. This year was a banner year for the hockey team. Keep up the good work, Knights!

Unde-feet-ed

Blending outstanding talent and supreme skill, the Varsity Boys Soccer team proved to be a significant threat to teams around the area. Led by seniors Nathan Dosmann, Phillip Gregg, Shane Le, Dan McCue, Aaron Richardson, and Joe Russell, the Knights finished the season undefeated with a 12-0-4 record. The successful offense scored in all but two games, while the stifling defense posted many shutouts.

Ranking in the top twenty teams of the state throughout much of the season, the Knights went into sectionals with confidence. In what newspapers called "the toughest sectional in the state," the Knights were handed their only loss in a heart-breaking shoot-out to soon-to-be sectional champion Elkhart Memorial. The season was full of thrilling wins from the massacres of Washington and Plymouth to the last-minute heroics against Adams. The crushing loss should not define what was simply one of the best Marian athletic teams in years.

The girls' soccer team finished an overall winning season with a record of Varsity: 10-5-1, JV(A): 8-3-3, JV(B): 11-3-3, and JV(C): 12-2-4. The Varsity won their first sectional game defeating LaSalle at School Field. Varsity also beat 12th ranked Andean with a score of 1-0. Nearly all the girls scored against Bethany Christian due to their great teamwork. Way to go Knights!

Record Racquets

The Boy's Tennis Team is really going places. The varsity team had a record season of 10-2, and the junior varsity followed with a record of 7-5. The boys traveled to Clay High School, winning 3rd place in the South Bend Invitational. They then traveled out to Concord and brought home a 4th place trophy. Led by captain Aaron Scherb and seniors Chuck Fetherolf and Joey Woodka, the boys traveled to Penn and placed as Sectional Runner-Ups. Their season ended with M.V.P's Nick Bishop and Nick Hindsley, M.I.P. Chuck Fetherolf. Aaron Scherb Mental Attitude, and Andy D'Haenens took home the Coach's Award.

Serving It Up

Despite being handed two new coaches this year, the girls tennis team handed plenty of losses to their opponents. Led by seniors Jessica Butkera, Rebecca Butkera, Heather Klocke, Graz Siciliano, and Natalie Solmer, the girls carried on the tradition of a winning record, ending their season at 10-6. First year coach Heidi Blake really helped condition the girls, while Coach Kathy Bussman worked on their strategy and mental game. "At first it was hard adjusting to a new coach, but then Coach Bussman came in and turned things around," says Jessica Butkera. "She brought our games to a whole new level, especially the doubles teams." The girls ended their season as Sectional Runner-up, losing to a state-ranked team 4-1 in the championship, with Rebecca Butkera and Graziella Siciliano providing a victory at #2 doubles.

A Banner Year

The Marian girls volleyball team made history in 1997. The Freshman Team was undefeated with a record of 18-0, the Junior Varsity had a record of 15-2, and the Varsity set the school record for the most wins since 1984 with a record of 25-10. The Lady Knights brought home first place in the Knox Tournament and were runners-up in the Concord Tournament. The highlight of the season was winning the first sectional crown in thirteen years by defeating Culver and Plymouth. The girls' hard work and effort really paid off with such a successful and impressive season. Way to go, girls!

The Defense Never Rests

The Marian basketball team this year proved what Knight strength was. Despite many senior players leaving after last year, the team prevailed and finished with a strong record. Excitement struck when Adam Heeg scored a controversial last-second basket to win the game against rival St. Joe. The ecstasy carried the team on a winning streak for many of the games following this win. Though having some tough defeats at the end of the season, the boys basketball team can look to promising juniors and a strong JV team, which had its best record ever, to lead next year's team to victory.

Reaching for the Heights

The Lady Knights basketball team once again had a successful season finishing with a great winning record a second year in a row. Senior Mary Wooley led the team setting new records in both points scored and rebounds while fellow teammate and senior Erika Walz set a new record in assists. Other contributing seniors were Breeyan Creevey, Marghi Geary, Kellee Fonferko, Melissa Pauwels, and Brooke Powers making for a successful veteran team.

Other team accomplishments were Mary Wooley was named Metro Player of the Year and played on the Metro Team with teammate Erika Walz who was also named to the Metro Team. Gordon Polsgrove was named Metro Coach of the Year.

Wrestling is a sport that is the perfect balance between strength and endurance. It requires quick movements and lightning-fast thinking. This year, the wrestling team put forth a great effort to show what they were made of. With a bit of tough luck here and there, they proved that they had it in them again and again. One of the great highlights of the year was a first place trophy at the Fairfield Invitational where they beat Fairfield and West Noble. Individual prizes were also awarded to the undefeated amongst the team. Another highlight of the season was the advancement of Chad Walther into regionals. Despite their record of 9-12, the team was individually strong. Most Valuable Player went to Eric Block for his excellent record and dedication. The Most Improved was Alex Kubsch, and the Mental Attitude Award went to Jonathon Geels. Marian can look to these four for the leadership of the team in the following years. Their effort is starting to pay off. Keep up the good work Knights!

Pomming Around the Country

Marian Poms this year danced across the U.S. attending various competitions throughout Indiana and a national competition in Florida. Both squads had extra work this year since they competed in both Pom and Dance categories. The Poms performed well at all competitions including City where the Marian fans were overwhelming. The Varsity and JV worked well together while attending dance classes and fundraising.

The highlight of the year for the Varsity squad was attending the National Dance Competition at Disney World. The team worked incredibly hard to achieve their destination. Out of five divisions of 27 teams each they placed 10th in their division, which ranked them in the top 50% of the country. During their much needed time off they visited the Magic Kingdom, MGM, and Epcot. The girls had a great season overall. The nine seniors appreciated all the support they were given over the four years.

Just Do The Little Things

Marian's softball team finished an up-and-down year which included victories over St. Joe, Mishawaka, and Bremen, all teams ranked in the state. Seniors Lisa Wood, Melissa Pauwels, and Kellee Fonferko set examples for a young team with hard work and dedication. The Knights finished their season with a heartbreaking 1-0 loss to St. Joe in the sectionals, but even that disappointment cannot overshadow a season filled with extra effort. Next year promises to be even better, so keep doing the little things and swing for the fences!

A Team of Champions

It was 1987 when Marian's baseball team last won a sectional title. This year's team did even better than that—they won both the sectional and regional title. Led by seniors Mike Bortone, Neil Druhan, Matt Trippel, Rich Brown, and Brandon Bennett, the young team finished with a 22-6 record. Coach R.C. Ganser credits the team's success to the players' determination, hard work, and love of the game.

An Eventful Season

The Boys' and Girls' Track teams both had a strong season this year. In both the Washington and St. Joseph meets, the boys and girls scored over 100 points. Another highlight for the boys' track team was at the Lancer Relays where they placed 1st out of 6 teams. The girls held a strong front at the Princess City competition. This year Marian sent six guys and twelve girls to Regionals where the girls 3200 meter relay advanced to State Competition. The boys' track team became very personal this year due to the drafty bus rides home.

Many different people keep this school running from day to day. From the Administration and guidance office to the janitorial and kitchen staff, everyone has an important role. People work behind the scenes each day to handle aspects of the school that we do not even think about. Without these people, our daily school life of teachers and classes, lunch and passing periods would be much different. A big thank you goes out to all of those who make Marian High School a great place to be.

"I'm telling you, I'm just happy to be here!" says Mr. Brettbacher.

Finding Their Place

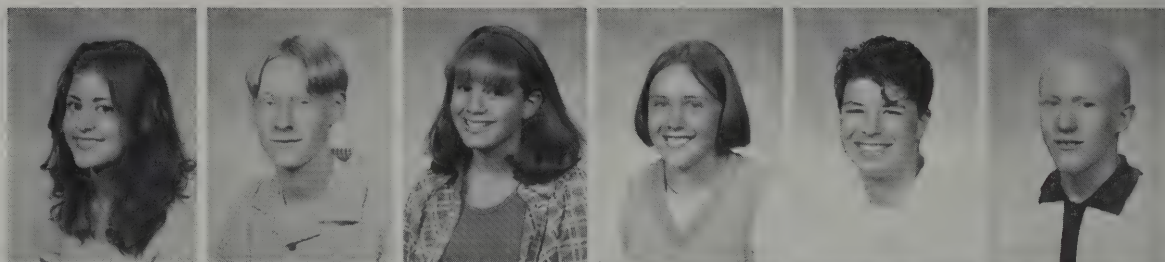

As the freshmen class of 2001 began their Marian odyssey, they asked the question "Is this the place to be?" Coming from many area Catholic and public schools, these freshmen brought with them many great qualities and talents. Athletic ability was one hallmark of the incoming group. Their musical talents were displayed in the band and choir programs. Overall, they seem very focused on their academics and the road ahead looks smooth.

Falling Into Place

As leaders of the freshmen, and students of the juniors, sophomores are now falling into place at Marian. Still the biggest class in the school, the sophomores have made themselves appear more numerous by showing their Knight spirit and their endless supply of energy. Their participation in pep rallies, sports teams, and clubs has helped set an example for many years to come. The class of 2000 is unique and has brought new elements to the school. They will continue to be good leaders as they enter the realm of the upperclassmen. They too shall have their own students, and they shall teach them well.

Knowing Their Place

With the confidence that comes with being upperclassmen, the class of 1999 excelled in academics, sports, and extra curricular activities. They set great examples for the younger classes with impressive magazine sales and a hard-working prom committee. Showing that they truly knew their place as leaders in the school, they were dedicated to every school activity and put large amounts of time and energy into improving Marian. As seniors they will surely be even more impressive.

Going New Places

The journey has been long. Many people were met and many places were seen. The class of 1998 can boast that its trek to the summit of graduation, while long and arduous, was a successful voyage. Many less-traveled paths were taken, making differences in students' lives. From the early days of being lowly freshmen to the last days of setting standards for future classes to achieve, the seniors blazed a trail through high school. As this journey ends, another begins. The class of 1998 starts a new expedition to find each members' "place" in life. Marian High School wishes the Seniors godspeed.

In Our Nation and Around the World

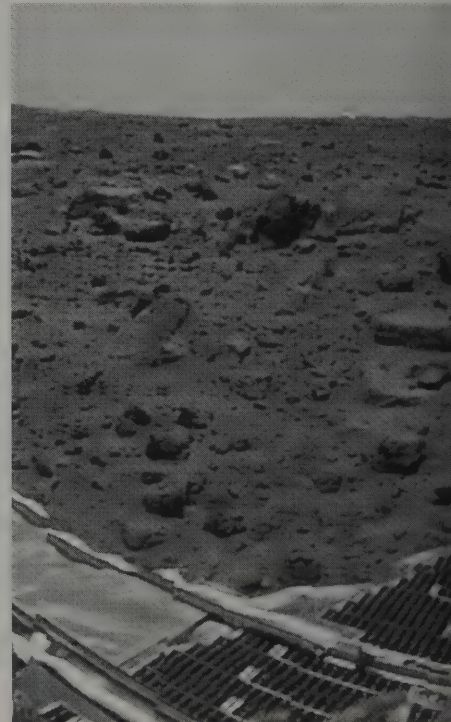

Britain and the world bid farewell to Diana, Princess of Wales, on a September morning with a tribute rich in pageantry. Since her death in a car crash in Paris a week before, Great Britain had witnessed an outpouring of grief that forced a repentant monarchy to join in the kind of full celebration of Diana's life that the millions of people who flooded to London demanded. Her sons, William, 15, and Harry, 12, stood in attendance, joined by their father, Prince Charles, and her brother, Earl Spencer, as the body was taken into Westminster Abbey. Millions packed the city for the funeral of Diana. It was a crowd unmatched since the end of World War II. More than a million bouquets by official count were stacked outside the royal palaces.

The Florida Marlins became major league baseball's world champions in 1997, beating the Cleveland Indians in the World Series. Just five years old, the Marlins tied the Indians in the ninth inning of the seventh game and went on to win it all in the eleventh inning with a score of 3-2. The Indians last won the Series in 1948.

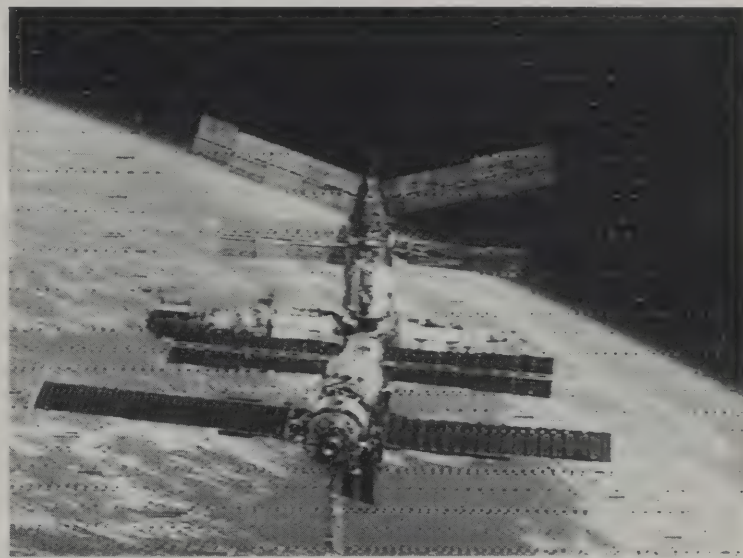

Right: The 11,000 residents of the Caribbean Island of Montserrat witnessed first hand the devastation that a very active volcano can cause. The volcano belched ash and small rocks over several days in September and forced more than two-thirds the population to evacuate the island.

Mother Teresa was among the most well-known and highly respected women in the world in the later half of the twentieth century. In 1948 she founded a religious order of Roman Catholic nuns in Calcutta, India, called the Missionaries of Charity. Through this order, she dedicated her life to helping the poor, the sick and the dying around the world, particularly those in India. Her selfless work with the needy brought her much acclaim and many awards, including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979. She died at the age of 87 on September 5, 1997 of heart failure in her convent in Calcutta.

The first component of the Mir space station was launched in 1986. Except for two brief gaps, the space station has been manned continuously ever since. It has made more than 60,000 trips around Earth. In 1994 the U. S. and Russia agreed to conduct joint missions aboard the station. The main Mir module, which provides living quarters for up to six people, has been orbiting seven years longer than planned.

Far Left: The roving vehicle Sojourner, the first mobile explorer to land on another planet, landed on Mars in the summer of 1997 and gathered soil and rocks. Overcoming communications trouble and other setbacks, the Sojourner left the Mars Pathfinder landing craft. The robotic rover's six metal wheels rolled slowly down a ramp and came to a stop on the surface. The Sojourner began crawling around the surface of Mars, transmitting a flood of information to scientists back on Earth.

United States Secretary of State Madeleine K. Albright was the most visible and active secretary of state since Henry Kissinger. She was the highest ranking woman in the history of the U. S. government, and she was admired and respected by diplomatic corps. Previously she served as President Clinton's ambassador to the United Nations and in foreign policy advisory positions for former President Jimmy Carter.

Senior Spirit

Top Right: School spirit and lots of cheese.

Middle: Gracías a Dios. The multicultural Mass and two participants, Beth Cunningham and Karen Stanley.

Right: Nathan Dosmann writes his best wishes to Jessica Butkera on her autograph shirt.

Left: "Oh no! I hope I don't have a Haas test today!!" Kellee Fonferko ponders.

Before we go our separate ways...

The trip to the Michiana Service Camp in Niles for the Senior Retreat was a total success. The Seniors and their leaders reflected on their four years in high school and their hopes for the future. The unusually warm weather allowed them to spend most of their time outdoors listening to Mr. Lang play his guitar, participating in midnight raids and games, hiking in the rain, and having Mass outdoors. All these experiences provided the Seniors with one more set of memories and another chance to bond with their classmates.

Left: Boys, are you missing your underwear? You better go talk to Kathy Kloska and Aubrey Rykovich.

People and Places

Right: Mr. Szajko asks, "Now, how do I turn this thing on again?"

Far Right: Maybe someone should tell Paul Pullkowski and Josh Jusko that the bell has rung and everyone else is gone.

Tia Milanese shows her enthusiasm for technical work. Maybe she's on the wrong side of the curtain.

The 1998 Madrigal has taken a unique aspect of Marian (the diversity of locations from which the students and faculty come), expanded the idea and had some fun. We often take for granted all the places that we go each day and the Marian Community consists of many of these different places to which we travel. Once we have reached Marian, we walk through different areas of the school building: Senior Hall, the Main Office, the classrooms. After school, the sports teams practice in their proper locations, whether here at Marian on the Soccer Field, or off campus at the Ice Box. Then the time comes when we venture on a field trip to Chicago, the Swamp, or even as far as Germany. Regardless of who we are, what activities we participate in, or where we live, different places make up a large part of our lives. Marian High School is a special place to attend school and we may not realize it now, but it will help us to "go places". Our time spent at Marian prepares us for all the new places we will venture in our lives. I would especially like to wish the best of luck to the members of the Class of 1998. Who knows to what new places we will go in the future!!

Before I sign off as yearbook editor, I would like extend a special thank you to all of those who offered their support to the yearbook throughout the year. So many people extended an encouraging word and a helping hand; I wish I could thank each of you personally. To my staff, you girls (and guy) were awesome!! Without your assistance at those early morning meetings, this yearbook would have never been finished. This yearbook is yours; I hope you enjoy it. (You are probably one of the few people reading this!) Returning staff members, make sure you offer your new editor, Colleen, all the help you can. Colleen, the yearbook is now in your hands. Happy Cropping and Good Luck!!

Jill Boruff
